

JULY 2020

SCAVA South Cape Association for the Visual Arts

COVID 19 ART

When this Pandemic struck very few artists thought it an opportunity to do some really creative work. But not Lloyd Carter. Early in the lockdown Lloyd finished his masterpiece and e-mailed it to SCAVA. Maura sent it off immediately to such places as the BBC and eNCANews. It is too good a picture not to be front and centre, the best painting inspired by the pandemic. If a picture speaks a 1000 words, Lloyd said it all. The frightening feeling it conveys causes shivers to run up and down the spine.

Title: "There will be life at the end of the Tunnel!"

A SOFTER APPROACH FROM TERSIA HOFFMANN making the virus headline news.

"Congratulations"

SCAVA was delighted to see 2 of our members in the runners up list of the "La Creuzette" & S.A. Artist Magazine art competition entitled "Still Life Re-imagined". Out of 250 entries, they were in the top twelve. The prizes were awarded recently at our organisation's branch (ASA) in Cape Town.

Deur Die Blare by Neeske Alexander
58 x 43cm Oils

Vermeer's Choice 2020 by Zanne Small
51 x 62cm Watercolours

Why enter competitions: A win in any prestigious competition on a c.v. is what curators and collectors look for. If this challenge is the route for you, then get to it.....

SCAVA's OLD MASTERS on-line preview can be seen on our own SCAVA Facebook, on Friends of George Museum Facebook and on web-site of George Herald. We are happy to keep on adding if you keep on sending in.

SCAVA people to contact

Maura St. John
E-mail: maurastj@yahoo.co.za
Barbara Benjamin
E-mail: admin@scava.co.za

OPEN DATE OF MUSEUM ART GALLERY—still unknown—will advise later.

HIGHLIGHT OF OUR YEAR—ANNUAL OPEN ART COMPETITION

Like everything else...obviously postponed until we get our lives back on track. Until then spare a thought for a young member who went on a visit to Thailand, popped across the border to Laos and now cannot get back to South Africa.